Numeric Grading System

The School of Law uses a 35 point numerical grading scale ranging from 65 to 99. To assist in interpreting academic performance, Mercer provides its students with their individual class ranks and attaches letter grade equivalents to the numerical grades for those more familiar with that grading format. Scholastic standing is determined on the basis of only those grades received in this Law School. A cumulative average of 78 is required for graduation. A degree of Juris Doctor cum laude will be granted to students graduating with a cumulative GPA of 88.0 and above; a degree of Juris Doctor magna cum laude will be granted to those graduating with a 90.5 and above; and a degree of Juris Doctor summa cum laude will be granted to students graduating with an average of 94.0 and above.

EFFECTIVE WITH THE ENTERING CLASS OF 2017 AND THEREAFTER:
A cumulative average of 78 is required for graduation.

Letter grade equivalents:

92-99	=	A
84-91	=	B
78-83	=	C
70-77	=	D
65-69	=	F

Letter grade equivalents for students graduating in 1993 through 2019:

90-99	=	A	LLM
82-89	=	B	H Honors
76-81	=	C	S Satisfactory
70-75	=	D	U Unsatisfactory
65-69	=	F

Letter grades used include:
