Frequently Asked Questions

The name of the credit card holder is on each ticket. Is this going to be a problem when all of us arrive at the event?

No. The ticket has a unique barcode that will be scanned and identify whether the ticket has been used prior to entry. This is the only criteria for successful entrance to the event.

What if I can't print or lose my ticket?

You can retrieve your ticket by going to this link <http://www.bigtickets.com/w/retrieve-tickets/> or visiting BigTickets.com to chat with one of our support agents. Also, attendee purchases can be verified at the event. Just let the person scanning the tickets know and you will be directed to the right location. Note that not having the ticket with you may result in a slight time delay in entry.

What name should I expect to see on my credit card bill?

Your credit card statement will reflect a charge from BIGTICKETS.
